BRITISH TIRED OF FREE TRADE SAYS DR. MACLEOD

Calumet Physician, Who Returns From Trip Abroad, States That Bad Effects of Free Trade Policy Are Apparent and That the People Are Now Clamoring for Protection.

Dr. A. G. MacLeod of this city, is home from a year's visit in Europe, the greater part of the time being spent in Edinburgh, the grand old capital of Scotland. Dr. MacLeod, however, visited several of the larger cities in England, including Birmingham, Eastbourne, London, etc. He also visited several cities in France and Germany, spending some time in Vienna and Paris. He talks very entertainingly of his trip. Mrs. MacLeod accompanied him.

Asked as to conditions in Great Britain the doctor said the country is ripe for a general election. "The people of Great Britain," said Dr. MacLeod, "see the fallacy of the free trade policy, and are now clamoring for trade protection." Dr. MacLeod gave one instance in point, where free trade injured a glass manufacturing concern in Edinburgh, Scotland, causing 1,400 employees to be thrown out of work. The glass firm had been engaged in the making of bottles for brewing firms. German competition came into the field, with the result that the Scottish firm was undersold and put out of business. This is only one instance. There are many such. Matters have now reached a crisis in the politics of the country, and Dr. MacLeod states that "abolition of the free trade policy" is the cry from all quarters.

"I am positive," he said, "that if parliament had been dissolved last April, that the Radical government, which is now in power, would have been overthrown, and the Unionists would be today presiding over the destinies of the British empire."

"A wave of reform is spreading over the land. The budget is now in the hands of the lords in the House of Lords. Deep interest is being taken as to what action the house of lords will take in the matter. It will only take a spark to set the political bonfire ablaze, and Great Britain is likely to sustain a parliamentary election the like of which has not been seen in the British Isles in many years."

Dr. MacLeod is loud in his praise of the city of Birmingham, one of England's most fashionable watering places. He states that the city is possessed of some magnificent residences, and probably what is most important, is one of the cleanest cities from a sanitary point of view that he has ever visited. Eastbourne—another fashionable summer resort—is highly spoken of by him.

BUTCHERS CHANGE THE DATE FOR ANNUAL FALL PARTY

The Calumet Butchers' association has changed the date for its annual fall entertainment from Wednesday, November 17, to Tuesday, November 16, one day earlier. It was found impossible to secure the First National bank hall of Laurium for the original date. It will now be held next Tuesday evening in the Gately-Wiggins hall of Red Jacket. Arrangements are being made to secure an orchestra for dancing and also other music.

Only members, their wives and families are eligible to attend, unless special invitations are sent to friends not affiliated with the association. The president of the association, J. Williams, stated this morning that the butchers are looking forward to the time of their lives. No pains are being spared by the several committees in charge of the arrangements to secure the very best of everything.

The proceeds from the annual fall entertainment are placed in the reserve fund to help minister to the needs of sick and indigent members.

WORK AT ELKS' TEMPLE.

Bowling Alleys Being Put in Shape—Eight-Team League Proposed.

A force of carpenters is employed in the Elks' temple completing the work in the bowling alleys. A platform is being built at the "delivery" end of the alleys, and a number of seats for spectators are being installed. Yesterday afternoon plasterers were engaged in giving the walls of the alleys a second coat of plaster. This will obviate the falling of dust and small bits of plaster, following the concussion of the balls on the floor of the alleys. The automatic pin-setters have not been installed as yet, but employees of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company, of Chicago, are expected in Calumet at any time now for the purpose of placing the device in position.

Arrangements are on foot to organize a bowling league among the members of the lodge. Teams are being chosen from the following villages and locations: Tamarack, Laurium, Calumet, Wolverine, Lake Linden, Red Jacket, Mohawk and Ahmeek. This will give the Elks an eight-team league. It is also probable that games will be played with other teams in the county. Independent games are likely to be arranged with the Portage Lake Elks, the Calumet Y. M. C. A. team, the Calumet Social club, and other organizations.

HART DENOUNCES DANCING, CARDS, AND THE THEATRE

Calls the Dance Cause of Most Divorces and Rebukes Wearers of "Peek-a-boo Waist"—Says Dance Produces Destruction of Moral, Spiritual and Physical Man.

Evangelist Herbert C. Hart fearlessly denounced the dance, the theatre, and cards, last evening at the revival meeting conducted at the Calumet M. E. church. Rev. Hart draws no distinction between the private dance, and the public dance, expressing the opinion that the one leads to the other, and that both destroy the moral and spiritual as well as the physical man. "It is so fascinating as to exclude the soul from Christ," declared the evangelist in his scathing arraignment.

"Ninety per cent of the divorces of this country have their origin in the dancing parlor and the low-down theater. From the home where the innocent offspring of indiscrete parents learn the apparently innocent square dance, which by the way, does not remain square very long, the young woman matures, then she is found in the public dance hall, from whence she goes to the divorce court and into deeper infamy and degradation.

"The dance itself is immoral. At every stage it is productive of immorality. Mind, do not quote me as saying that all persons who dance are immoral. It cost the head of the purest and best man that ever walked the earth outside of the Master Himself, and do you mean to tell me that God Almighty approves of an institution that is responsible for such a horrible crime. The dance is the pastime of the savage, and the lower you find the nation in the moral and intellectual scale, the more addicted you will find its people to the dance.

"I hope the time will come when it will be considered a disgrace by the men of this land for a woman to be seen on the street in a peek-a-boo waist. Why it would be just as decent for me to appear in the pulpit with my shirt off as for a woman to appear in public robes as I have described."

Notwithstanding the fact that last night's effort was probably the strongest sermon of the series, Mr. Hart says that he has not exhausted his ammunition and that he has some sermons coming which will prove just as hot. His subject for this evening is, "The Unanswerable Question," which will be handled without gloves. On Sunday afternoon, Evangelist Hart will address a mass meeting for men at the Calumet theater under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Magann, as usual, had charge of the singing service in connection with the services at the Calumet M. E. church last spring, and the results were very successful. This feature of the service is a very interesting one.
